Overview

StyleSnipe is a browser extension designed for web style inspection with a strict focus on user privacy. This privacy policy explains how StyleSnipe handles user data (or more accurately, how it doesn't handle any user data).

Data Collection Policy

StyleSnipe is built with a "zero-data" approach:

- We do not collect any personal information

How StyleSnipe Works

Browser Permissions

StyleSnipe requires minimal permissions to function:

1. `activeTab` : To read style information from the current webpage

3. Host permissions: To function on websites you visit

These permissions are:

- Only used when actively inspecting elements
- Limited to the current tab you're working on
- Never used to collect or transmit data
- Essential for the core functionality of style inspection
